Dedication

THE Past is as a precious urn filled with boundless treasures. Within this treasure hoard is stored the knowledge and wisdom of the ages, fragrant with the loveliness of noble character and noble tradition. As the heirs of this priceless dowry we, the class of 1931, dedicate our "Aurora" to the eternal Past.

Foreword

HEREIN aided by the wealth of wisdom relayed to us by our predecessors, we endeavor to record the accomplishments of the school year 1930-1931. As we have benefited from the experience of the past, so we hope to go forth into the world adding to the store of knowledge that our posterity may live the better for it.

—PROVERBS

Behind these silent seeming walls
Do emperors, kings, queens, soldiers, scientists, all Men of Time, pass in revue to give
A liquid learning that Youths may drink and live.

Here . . .
Within these windowed Halls
Today grasps the hands of ten thousand Days of Yesterday,
And Youth wider strides and sings more lustily!

National Honor Society

THE National Honor Society, an organization created to encourage scholarship, was introduced into Union High School April 11, 1930. Forty-two members have now been elected to the organization, seventeen members being elected during 1929-1930 and twenty-five during 1930-1931. The selection was based on scholarship, character, leadership, and service. It is the highest honor that can be conferred upon any student in Union High School. An official emblem of the National Honor Society has been purchased by the school this year and is placed in the trophy cabinet near the auditorium. Miss Grace Thomasma acts as adviser for this society. The faculty committee for the election of this year's new members consisted of Miss Addie Bettes, Miss Marion Jennings, Miss Mae Conlon, Miss Myrtle Heseltine, Mr. Keith Kennedy, Mr. Fred Voss, Mr. Reuben Smith, Mr. Arthur J. Avery, and Mr. Clayton Bazuin.

Changes in Faculty

The new teachers for the year were as follows: Mr. Harmon Jones, physical education for boys; Miss Margaret McDonald, physical education for girls; Miss Anna Kunert, English; Miss Olga Perchbacker, English; Miss Lura Sipe, home economics; Miss Frances Lanke, art; Miss Avis Slaughter, grades; and Mr. Charles Morris, printing. The teachers who have left during the past year are as follows: Miss Marion Campbell, Miss Gertrude Brummeler, Miss Ethel McRae, and Miss Margaret Demmon. Miss Charlotte Gierst, art teacher at Union, has had a leave of absence and will return next fall.

Assembly Speakers

Many well-known speakers have been obtained at Union for the assemblies during the year. Among them were the following: Mrs. Elvin Swarthout of the Grand Rapids Art Association; Cameron Beck, lessons on life experience; E. C. Warriner, universal peace; Harry White, experiences in India; George Elias of Irag, Mesopotamia, on experiences in Russia; Guy Morrison, health; Bill Hart, how to be happy; Capt. Dennis Rooke, aviation; Coveny Company, clay and chalk artist; Televox, the mechanical man; Art Young, archer; Jess Pugh, humorist; Sergeant Alvin C. York, war hero and educator; Alois Lang, former actor in the Passion Play of Oberramergau; C. M. Sanford, vocations; and Kenneth Rouse, University of Chicago.

Enrollment

The total enrollment in October, 1930 at Union was 2148, an increase of 84 students since October, 1929. The junior high had an enrollment of 1018, and the senior high, 1130.

Special Awards

The Dillingham Memorial awards are given annually by the faculty to the senior boy and girl who through effort and perseverance have achieved superior scholarship and through unselfish interest in fellow-students have become wholesome leaders. The faculty's choice this year was Ann Kowaliszyn and Willam Favel.

The teachers of the Grand Rapids Home Economics Club have awarded a two-year scholarship at Junior College to Evelyn Bale. This award includes tuition, books, and activity fees. It is given only to a girl who has taken Home Economics work and is interested in going on with the course, not necessarily as a teacher but in some connected line, such as textile or institutional work.

The following places were won by Union students in the Second Annual All-City High School Music Contest: tuba, Carl Lindberg, first place; brass sextett, first place with Robert Lindberg as first cornet; Wilber Stahr, second cornet; Oscar Lindberg, horn; Irene Owczarzak, baritone; Wesley Hansen, trombone; Carl Lindberg, tuba.

String quartet, first place with Frank Marczinski as first violin; Junior Smith, second violin; Carl Lindberg; viola; Henry Marczinski, cello.

John Kalchuk took first place in violin in the ninth and tenth grade division. Robert Lindberg tied for second place with South in trumpet; Wesley Hansen took third place in trombone; and Henry Marczinski, third place in cello.

The following won in vocal contests:

William Westberg, first place in tenor, awarded by Atwater-Kent Radio Company.

Boys' double quartet, first place, with William Westberg, Henry De Vries, Robert Lindberg, William Mc Fall, Adrian Stehouwer, Howard Zaremba, George Wasel, Charles Soet as members.

Girls' double trio, second place, with Alyce Kob, Gertrude Stehouwer, Rose Shecter, Cornelia VanderJagt, Marcia Richardson, Ronella Rickson as members.

William Titus won first place in Michigan in the National Poetry Contest conducted by the Scholastic Publishing Company. His prize was a silver loving cup.

Union's R. O. T. C. Rifle Team has brought honor to its school this year by winning the Loomis Cup in the All-School match. This is only the second year that the cup has been awarded, South having won it last year. The five man winning team was composed of four seniors and one underclassman; seniors, Captain Herman W. Content, Lieutenants Stanley Orowski, Lester Middleton, and Edwin Jenning; underclassman, Charles Dorman.

Class Hymn

WILLIAM TITUS

We are youths of fifty nations gathered in this spacious hall;
We are tempered steel from races of iron fathers, lean and tall;
We are every shape and color underneath the copper sun,
And we're gathered here together 'one for all and all for one'.

We aspire to build a nation of white scrapers piercing blue;
We aspire to build a nation like our fathers never knew;
We aspire to write world-brotherhood across the arching-sky,
God grant the aspirations, and may Union write them high.

O, in the flow of suns and moons, in all eternities,
May we the youths of Union stretch our hands across the seas,
May we have light to show the way; O, grant us might to stand,
O, may we waken inner light and truth through every land.

The Senior Play

"SEVENTH Heaven", a three-act drama, was presented by the senior class on May 27 and 28. The story takes place in the lower quarters of Paris, during the World War. The plot concerns itself with the love story of Chico, a young sewer cleaner of the slums, and Diane. Chico is an atheist and a cynic, embittered toward life. To protect Diane, an unfortunate girl for whom he cares nothing, he claims her to be his wife, and later falls in love with her and marries her. The war comes between them and for four years they are separated. However, Chico's love for Diane brings him back to her in spite of all obstacles, and she in turn remains true to him. This changes his beliefs, so that he finally becomes convinced that there is a "Bon Dieu".

A single cast was used for the boys' parts, and a double cast for the girls'. Diane was excellently enacted by Irma Wiest and Ann Gryga, and the part of Chico was equally well done by Edwin Jennings. Boul, the sympathetic, paternal taxi driver, was characterized by Louis Fitzsimmons, and Maximilian Gobin, the street washer, was portrayed by Wilson Smith. Brissac, an aristocratic elderly gentleman in love with Diane, was performed in a fine manner by Franklin Du Bois. Virginia Wysell and Barbara Helfenbein played the part of Nana, Diane's cruel sister, and Arlette, a friend of Diane, was enacted by Ann Kowaliszyn and Veronie Koone. Bruce Fox played the role of Blonde, a lawyer, and Rein DeMeester played Recan, an assistant of Brissac. Diane's sympathetic aunt was depicted by Evelyn Bale and Bernice Karpovich, and the Puritanical uncle by Dale Stevens. Pere Chevillon, the priest, was played by Robert Lindberg, Stanley Orowski did the part of the police sergeant and William Titus of the sewer-rat.

Included in the production staff were Mr. Stanley Albers, director; Jack Livingston, assistant director; business managers, Ted Burgess and William Druker; stage manager, Louis Fitzsimmons, and assistant stage manager, Charles Burtt.

The Class Will

WE, the Senior Class of Union High School, of the great city of furniture and De Vaux chariots, in the county of Kent, state of Michigan, being of sound mind and nervously aware that our ship shall sail from this port ere many moons pass, with due consideration to the present financial depression, hereby make our last will and testament.

To the "hard teachers" of those simple subjects like economics, commercial law, history, and geometry, we leave the honor of raving to newcomers about our brilliancy.

To Miss Neuman and the lunchroom staff, we leave the worry and care of refueling the vigorous youngsters with the proper calories.

To our great regret, we leave to the faculty only our deepest sympathy, which they will need when they commence to tackle the class of 1932.

To the envy of all we leave to Mr. Albers the task which is so simple, enjoyable, and—above all—so tranquil, the choosing of a cast for the senior play.

That convenient part of the hall between session rooms 225 and 228, we leave as a trysting place for the junior Romeos. There they may gather and rattle off words of love to their maidens fair.

To the trailing and tail-end juniors, we leave the forty-minute rest period after school.

To the arguers of the future, we leave the smooth, non-skid tongues of our famed and successful debaters, Jack Livingston and Bob Lindberg.

To the junior girls, we leave the privilege of being addressed by Miss Thomasma as "my dear child".

To the junior boys who find it impossible to study elsewhere than in the library, we leave the privilege of peeking into the girls' room at the studious maidens. To the girls who must suffer the same predicament, vice versa.

To the members of the Unionite staff, we leave the honor of astounding the advisers with actually brilliant material, always handed in on time.

To the typists of future Unionite and Aurora work, we leave the hair-raising mystery of figuring out those hand-written articles.

To the 1931 football team we leave the honor of bouncing the "Muskies" into "Never, Never Land."

To that organization, faintly suggestive of the northern get-your-man type, the Service Squad, we leave the quick eye and commanding manner of our senior service squaders.

To our amazingly youthful successors, the Class of '32, who so strangely lack the maturity characteristic of us as seniors, we leave with rather a little averseness and uncertainty the following:

Item: The right to expand their chests, raise their heads, and smile benignly at all lower classmen.

Item: Freedom of speech after senior meetings.

Item: The privilege of concentrating in session rooms 225 and 228 and of asking either deep and thoughtful or perfectly inane questions of the ever dependable Miss Thomasma and Mr. Voss.

Item: Numerous headaches, crowsfeet, and gray hairs caused by worry about late Aurora payments.

Item: The good luck to look dignified in their senior pictures.

Item: The right to look nonchalant when quaking freshmen stare.

Item: The right to present absence excuses of remarkable originality.

With blurry eye and unsteady hand we affix our hand and seal on this nineteenth day of June, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and thirty one.

The Senior Class

CLASSES

O, silver chalice burnished with the wisdom of creation, give us of your learning.

Left to right, first row: Joan Ver Lee; Alice Kimball and George Bookholder, treasurers; Antone Dauksza, president; Ranolla Rickson, secretary; Margaret Simms.
Second row: Lena Romani, Sidney Hodson, Richard Braun, Eugene Serdynsky, Don Schriber, Reva Caminer.

Junior Class

THE junior class was organized early in the first semester. The following officers were elected: President, Donald De Jager; vice-president, Tony Dauksza; secretary, Ranolla Rickson; treasurers, Alice Kimball and George Bookholder.

At the beginning of the second semester Donald De Jager left school and Tony Dauksza became president.

The following chairmen for various social activities were appointed by the president with the help of the executive board: Refreshment committee, Lena Romani and Reva Caminer; reception, Joan Ver Lee; entertainment, Margaret Simms; floor clean-up, Donald Schriber; decoration, Eugene Serdynsky; publicity, Richard Braun.

The Yule-Tide Frolic, the first class party of the year, was held in the girls' gymnasium on December 19. A small number attended but all had an enjoyable time.

A Sunlite Dance was held in the girls' gymnasium, February 12. The J-Hop was also held in the girls' gymnasium on March 6.

The last party of the year was the annual party given by the juniors for the seniors. It was held in the Dillingham Memorial gymnasium on May 22. The decorations for this party were Hawaian, Aloha Party being the name given the event.

Much of the year's success was due to the adviser, Miss Nelle Atwood and to her assistant, Miss Lucelia Badgely.

Ranolla Rickson, '32

Second row: Ethel Miller, Miss Clara Smallidge, adviser; Sulo Lageroos, Robert Kuzinga.

The Sophomore Class

AFTER hearing and adopting a constitution the sophomore class early in October elected the following officers: President, Joseph Wasco; vice-president, Norman Stoll; secretary, Eunice Nowacki; treasurers, Ruth Rinner and William Warren. The executive board elected the following committee chairmen: Program committee, Robert Kuzinga; membership and boosters committee, Ethel Miller; dues committee, Sulo Lageroos.

The first activity of the year was a Get Together, held in October at John Ball Park. Interesting games were played, and cider and doughnuts served as refreshments. The following committee planned the activity: Jack Kortlander, Maud Stratton, Mary Karatkiewicz, Sulo Lageroos, Robert Kuzinga, and Lorraine Hubble.

The proceeds of a Sunlite Dance sponsored by the class in December went to the Herald Santa Claus Girls, for the benefit of all poor children in Grand Rapids.

Eleanor Heilemann, the general chairman of the Yule-Tide Party, held December 20 in the girls' gym, was assisted by the following chairmen and their committees: Entertainment committee, Maurine Coffee; refreshments, Sarah Allen; publicity, Sulo Lageroos; finance, Sidney Rapaport; decorations, Albert Bauch.

A Potluck Supper, held February 12 in the lunchroom, was a great success through the work of the co-chairmen Maud Stratton and Robert Kuzinga. A delicious supper was served. Dancing and games completed the program.

Other social events were a Practice Dance in March, a Soph-Frosh Dance in May and a Farewell Party in June.

The class is grateful for the help and cooperation of its advisers, Miss Clara B. Smallidge and Miss Clarissa Richardson.

Eunice Nowacki, '33

Freshman Class

EARLY in the first semester the nominating committee composed of representatives from each session room met and nominated candidates for the class officers of the class of '34.

A general class meeting was held on October 16, when the following officers were elected: President, William Gallmeyer; vice-president, Dorothy Cutler; secretary, Geraldine Barbour; girl treasurer, Carmen Mains; and boy treasurer, Donald Stoll.

Regular class meetings are held the second Wednesday of each month, with special meetings called by the president when necessary.

A Post-Washington Pot-Luck was held February 24, in the lunch room. Chairmen of the committees were general chairman, Verna Hohnson; refreshments, Marjorie Castor; games, Charlotte Kortlander; publicity, Virginia Wood and Jack Criner; and finances, Dorothy Cutler. Jack Criner was responsible for the reels that were shown.

Committee members were Norma Bowman; Sophie Siegel, Barbara Harrigan, Carmen Mains, Orpha Korten, Betty Nebeluis, Oscar Matzot, John Coffee, Donald Stoll, and Jack Criner. Eileen Glupels entertained them with several dramatic readings.

A Sunlight Dance was given during the month of April. Committee members were: General-Chairman, John Coffee; publicity, Virginia Wood and Jack Criner; orchestra, Carmen Mains; and tickets, Marjorie Castor and Barbara Harrigan.

The freshmen class sponsored an assembly program early in the spring, and the annual Sophomore-Freshman party.

The cooperation of the adviser, Miss Marie McDermott, was appreciated by all.

The Student Council

THE aim of this year's Student Council has been to carry on the promotion of the Inter-Hi-Council which was first organized last year. All high schools in the city have joined, and even Holland High School attends the meetings which are held every second Tuesday in the month. Gold keys, methods of financing annuals, and anything else that is of mutual interest and benefits is discussed.

All candidates for the presidency of the Student Council spoke at assemblies at the beginning of the year. Franklin Du Bois was elected president. Other officers were as follows: vice-president, Herman Content; secretary, Maratha Haraburda; editor, Sidney Orkin. The adviser is Principal C. A. Everest.

The following were appointed committee chairmen by the executive board to carry out the work of the council: activity rating, Eugene Serdynsky; activity planning, Margaret Simms; citizenship, Anita Caminer; safety, Ella Wright; suggestion box, Leo Henry; thrift, Sarah Allen; assembly program, Ruth Rapp; Red Cross, Esther Kizlaitis; handbook, Alyce Kob.

A contest was sponsored by the council to find a nickname for Union. The students selected the name Red Hawks. A new list of activity rating points for organization and leadership work has been made. Recently a new committee has been organized called the hall beautiful committee. Its object is to keep the halls clear of all unnecessaries. Posters, bills, signs, and notices are to be placed on the bulletin boards or blackboards.

HI-Y Club

THE Hi-Y club is a boy's organization affiliated with the Y. M. C. A. The club is led by Mr. J. W. Van Brook, director of Hi-Y clubs about the city, and Mr. Reuben Smith, the faculty adviser.

The purpose of the Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. Its slogan is "Clean Living, Clean Speech, Clean Athletics, and Clean Scholarship."

The club meets weekly on Friday morning from 7:45 to 8:25 o'clock. At each meeting a prominent business or professional man is secured to speak on current problems or problems in everyday life.

Selection is made each year of the best all-around senior boy in the club and his name engraved on the silver Hi-Y cup kept in the school trophy case. Activities of the club consist of such things as joint meetings with the Girl Reserves, a banquet at the end of the year, giving baskets to the poor at Christmas, and meetings and good times at the Y. M. C. A. Delegates are sent every year to the state Older Boys Conference, and to Camp Hoyo-Went-Ha at Torch Lake with either all or part of the expenses paid.

Officers elected to serve for the first semester were as follows: President, Jack McIntyre; vice-president, Rein De Meester; secretary, Louis Olivier; and treasurer, Ross Johnson.

Rein De Meester was program chairman for the first semester and Bernard Smith for the second semester.

The Service Squad

THE main purpose of the Service Squad is to foster a spirit of democracy in Union. It was first organized six years ago by Principal Everest, who directed it for more than a year. Miss Blanche Mann, assistant principal, then took over the reins. Membership includes students from the ninth to the twelfth grades.

The requirements a student has to meet are a "C" average and a session-room teacher's recommendation. The Squad has taken up this year the work of planning a new point system and schedule of requirements as well as continued its work of checking leave permits, giving information to visitors, and collecting absence slips the first and sixth hours. Students who completed the required work received points toward the gold key.

The following officers were elected at the first meeting of the year: Eugene Serdynsky, general chairman; Junior Smith, vice-chairman; and Lillian Harlick, secretary. The chairmen for the two semesters were Lillian Harlick, Eleanore Crandall, Inez Grinnell, Eugene Serdynsky, Zygmond Gorman, Jennie Borkowski, Richard Braun, Leo Henry, Margaret Simms, Mary Henry, Helen Triick, Anne Kowaliszyn, Kathryn Verhey, and Irene Hojnacki.

Meetings held the sixth period once a month helped to get the members together and to answer any questions they may have had about their work and also to give them an opportunity for suggestions as to how to improve the Squad and its work.

Reserve Officers Training Corps

THE Reserve Officers Training Corps is conducted not with the sole idea of instructing students in military training, but with the aim of teaching them those qualities which make good citizens, namely: cleanliness, neatness, punctuality, truthfulness, courtesy, loyalty, teamwork, self-control, self confidence, physical fitness, alertness, respect for constituted authority, fine carriage, and leadership.

Training is under the supervision of a regular army officer, Lieutenant Howell Harrell, D. O. L., P. M. S. & T. Sergeant Henry McIntyre, U. S. Army, is his assistant. The training is carried on, however, directly under the cadet officers, who are as follows: Captain Herman W. Content, Lieutenants Stanley Orowski, Lester Middleton, Donald Flint, Edwin Jennings, and Robert Lindberg.

An interesting new organization connected with the R. O. T. C. is the Bar and Chevron Club, organized by Sgt. McIntyre. Membership in the club is compulsory for all officers and non-commissioned officers. The Military Hop was sponsored by this club at Union February 14 and was highly successful.

The Annual Federal Inspection was made May 11 by Colonel Wilvick, who praised highly the conduct and appearance of the unit at Union.

Girl Reserves

As a Girl Reserve I will try to be:

Gracious in manner.	Reaching toward the best.	Reverent to God.
Impartial in judgment.	Earnest in purpose.	Victorious over self.
Ready for service.	Seeing the beautiful.	Ever dependable.
Loyal to friends.	Eager for knowledge.	Sincere at all times.

This is the code of the Girl Reserves, a national organization sponsored by the Y.W.C.A. Mrs. R. B. Notestein is Girl Reserve executive in Grand Rapids. Miss Cynthia Jones and Miss Evelyn Foster are advisers of the club at Union.

The Girl Reserves have done much service work this year. Christmas and Thanksgiving baskets were prepared and various things done to help unfortunate children.

The club also successfully sponsored two sunlight dances this year to raise money to carry on activities.

The social life of the club is varied and interesting. An All-Nations Party was held at the Y. W. C. A. on November 14 and on March 3 a tea was given at Union, honoring the Girl Reserve alumnae.

Officers for the first semester were Lillian Harlick, president; Pauline Robbins, secretary; and Mildred Rodgers, treasurer. Those for the second semester were Lillian Richardson, president; Anita Caminer, vice-president; Blanch Cain, secretary; and Ella Wright, treasurer.

Meetings are held every other Tuesday. The program consists of discussions on interesting topics or of talks by outside speakers.

Officers of the club are members of the Inter-Council at the Y. W. C. A., a club composed of Girl Reserve officers from every school in the city.

"The Unionite"

"THE Unionite", the school magazine, under the direction of Miss Myrtle Heseltine and Miss Esther Eby, has seen another successful year draw to a close. Eleanor Lampert, as editor-in-chief, and Leo Henry, as associate editor, contributed to the success of the magazine by their wholehearted support.

Several new features were added to "The Unionite" this year. A step in the advancement of modernistic art was accomplished by William Titus when he designed the cover of the January number and the frontispiece of the November number. A talkie department established this year proved interesting. Heime Berkowitz added a new feature by his continued story, "The Back Number". A series of entertaining health articles was conducted by Anne Kowaliszyn.

Each issue of "The Unionite" sought to reflect the atmosphere of the seasons. A clever contrast was made between the January number, the "Grand Rush", which depicted the mad rush of modern life and the February issue, "Ye Olde Timer", a jaunt back to olden times. This number contained several articles on life in foreign countries. The December issue, the "Yule Log", was interesting because of the dual meaning of the word "log", first, as a log burned in the hearth at Christmastide, and second, as a ship's record.

Due to financial difficulties caused by the general depression, the staff was unable to produce the April number, but a May issue was published jointly by the junior-senior staffs.

The business department consisted of William Westburg, business; Rein De Meester, advertising; and Jack Mc Intyre, circulation.

The Latin Club

THE Latin Club of 1930-1931 has endeavored to maintain the interest which was inspired by the Latin Club of the former year.

On October 28, 1930 a number of Latin students met with the adviser and organized the club for the new year with the following officers, who also carried over for the second semester: President, Maud Stratton, '33; vice-president, Maurine Coffee, '33; secretary, Ellsworth Woolpert, '32; treasurer, Sulo Lagerros, '33; committee chairmen: Program, Maurine Coffee; boosters, Sarah Allen, '33.

Throughout the year regular meetings were held at which games were played and refreshments served. Some of the program activities of the year were: a talk on the Yellowstone Park by Quinten DeYoung, initiation of new members; a dialogue in Latin by Sulo Lagerros, and Henry Mioduchowski, and instrumental music by active members.

This club and the Spanish Club jointly sponsored early in the fall an all-school party which was so much enjoyed that the club planned a similar party for the spring term.

Arrangements were made for an illustrated lecture on Roman Art by Mrs. Mary Cook Swartout, director of the Grand Rapids Art Gallery.

The Latin and Spanish Clubs are establishing a prize fund for high scholarship in foreign language at Union High School.

Another aim of the club is to create and maintain a wholesome and friendly spirit toward other nations by studying to understand the life and speech of other people than themselves.

El Club Espanol

TO give El Club Espanol a good start for the year of '31, the following officers were elected in June, 1930: President, Margaret Simms; vice-president, Sidney Orkin; secretary, Frank Jankowski; treasurers, William Westberg (first semester), Major Belkin (second semester). Miss Ruth Carpenter acted as adviser for the club.

The year's activities were opened with a large party, the Black Cat Cutup, given October 17 in the Dillingham Memorial Gymnasium. The party, open to all the schools in the city, was very successful.

A Christmas party for Spanish Club members only was given in the girls' gymnasium December 16. It was a lovely affair with decorations in Spain's national colors. A stunt by each of the Spanish classes added much enjoyment to the affair.

The year's social events were concluded with a party for spanish members and their guests in the girls' gymnasium April 17.

A beautiful painting, "The Surrender of Breda" by Velazquez, was presented to the school in January Following a custom of the past few years, the Spanish Club held a tennis and a golf tournament for members of the club. Philip Van Dyke was chairman of the tennis tournament, and Sidney Hodson of the golf tournament.

Numerous other activities were carried on by the club, such as contributing to the Welfare Union, collecting clothes to help the needy and completing a scrap book which contained interesting data concerning Spanish affairs.

Margaret Simms, '32

Le Club Francais

LE Club Francais was organized the first part of the year by students interested in French and with Miss Ethel Scholes as adviser.

At the first meeting, the following officers were elected: President, Eugene Serdynsky; vice-president, Mildred Rogers; secretary, William Favel; and treasurer, Harriet Jarmol. Throughout the year several business meetings were held at which typically French games were played and "chocolate et gateaux" enjoyed.

The objective of Le Club Francais is to create a feeling of friendliness and brotherliness toward the French people and to familiarize students with French manners and customs. This is accomplished more easily in smaller informal groups than in the class room.

The Alliance Francaise invited members of Le Club Francais to attend their meetings. M. Arthur Bovee, Mme. Marguerite Clement, Prof. Morize and other prominent French professors lectured at various intervals during the year. Although these lectures were sometimes difficult to understand, a feeling of achievement and exultation always went away with the students who attended them.

Members of Le Club Francais presented a one-act farce, "L'Anglias Tel Qu'on Le Parle", by Tristan Bernard, at the senior assembly on Thursday afternoon, April 16. William Favel played the part of a dapper Frenchman who elopes with a young English girl, Ann Kowaliszyn, who is pursued by her stiff English father, Ellsworth George. Eugene Serdynsky, by pretending to know English and who really knows only French, gets himself and everyone else into a terrible tangle. Gertude Kaminski played the part of "The French madame" who is anxious to please her English customers. Edwin Jennings and Raymond Jarvi took the parts of police commissioners who add a final climax to the play. Alex Tulos made a snappy French garcon d'hotel.

William Favel, '31

Der Deutsche Verein

"DER Deutsche Verein," an organization composed of students who had taken or were taking German, began its work early in the year with Miss Emma Zur Muehlen as faculty adviser.

The main objective of the club was to cultivate an interest in German customs, literature, and art, and to promote friendship among its members.

Correspondence with students in Germany, a project in which the club assumed an active part, proved interesting and educational, particularly in promoting friendly international relations. Many letters were received every week from numerous German cities. An illustrated scrapbook containing portions of the letters received was also made.

At the Modern Language assembly, given in April, Der Deutsche Verein was represented by a short play, "Eine gefahrliche Krankheir" (A Dangerous Illness). The club also sponsored an assembly in March. Mr. Alois Lang, a member of the well-known family who have taken various parts in the Passion Play, gave an interesting talk.

The members of the German II class entertained the club at the annual Christmas party, by giving a comedy "Die Wette" (the Wager). Two Sunlite Dances sponsored by the club were well attended.

The officers for the year were: President, Frank Meyers; vice-president, Helen Rings; secretary-treasurer, Elsie Schmid; and program committee chairman, Charles Burtt. Frank Meyers left the second semester, and Helen Rings acted as president the remaining time.

The Band

THE band had a very successful year under the able leadership of Mr. Theodore F. Fryfogle. It was made up principally of under classmen. This fact shows that Union's younger musicians are becoming proficient.

The music studied by the band consisted of marches, and light and standard overtures. Some of the best marches were Colonel Bogey by Kenneth J. Alford, Chicago's World's Fair Centennial Celebration 1933, by Carl Mader, and R. B. Hall's selection of marches. Some of the other numbers were Bohemian Girl by Balfe, Light Cavalry, Pique Dame by F. Von Suppe, Queen of the Night by Justin Elie, and Valse des Fleurs by P. Tschaikowsky.

The band played at all the football games, usually parading at the half or maneuvering with the visiting band.

A small band made up of members of the senior band under the leadership of Robert Lindberg played for all the junior and senior assemblies and the mass meetings. It also played for all the basketball games held at Union.

The new policy of giving a letter in a special music award assembly to band men who had been in the band for two years or longer was adopted. Members of the band were also given special honor points toward the gold key.

The instrumentation of the band was as follows: two flutes, E flat clarinet, ten B flat clarinets, three french horns, three altoes, five saxaphones, fourteen trumpets, four trombones, three baritones, four basses, three snare drums and bass drum.

The Orchestra

THE Union High orchestra had a successful year under the skillful leadership of its director, Mr. T. F. Fryfogle, who has been director of the orchestra for the past five years. The orchestra consisted principally of senior high students, but also included junior high school students who had shown special ability. Rehearsals were held five days a week, one hour each day. School credit for this work is one hour for two hours of orchestra.

The orchestra rendered a delightful program at the Midwinter Festival of Music held in January under the supervision of the music department.

Many members of the orchestra were representatives in the Symphonia Society which consists of picked members of the various high schools in the city. The director of the Symphonia Society this year was Mr. T. F. Fryfogle.

The string quartette, consisting of two violins, viola, and cello and composed of members of the senior orchestra, played for various clubs and socials, where chamber music was needed. The program rendered by the string quartette in the Midwinter Festival of Music consisted of Finale (Quartette 72) by Hayden, and Angel Gabriel (Old Plantation Song) by Alfred Pachon. The members of the string quartette were Frank Marczinski, first violin; Wilson Smith, second violin; Carl Lindberg, viola; and Henry Marczinski, cello.

The instrumentation of the orchestra was as follows: three flutes, eight first violins, sixteen second violins, four cellos, three basses, three clarinets, two trumpets, three french horns, two trombones, bass drum and tympani.

The Girls' Glee Club

THE beginning of the school year found many new members joining the Girls' Glee Club. It met the seventh hour each day, under the supervision of Miss Florence C. Best. The enrollment during the second semester was not so large as during the first, as the class was held at an inopportune time.

The first five or ten minutes of each class period was spent doing breathing exercises, and also exercises for bettering the tone quality.

Much time at the beginning of the semester was spent preparing for the Mid-Winter Festival which was held in the school auditorium January 13. The Girls' Glee Club presented the following numbers: "The Prince Came a-Wooing" by Merikanto, "Good Night" a Czecko—Slovakian folk song, and "Psalm 150" by Cesare Franck.

The Glee Club entertained at assemblies and also at the West Side Ladies' Literary Club.

During the second semester the Glee Club worked on modern numbers, several of which are; "The Oriental Song" by Nicholas Rimsky-Korsakoff, "The Last Night" by Joseph W. Clokey and "Children of the Moon" by Elinor Remick Warren. These numbers were also given by the girls as their share of the program in the May Musicale.

Various double trios were formed to work on the number "Lift Thine Eyes" from Elijah, by Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy. This was the contest number which was used in the inter-high music contest, held in the early spring at Central High.

During the first semester the girls wore uniforms of black jumpers and white blouses. During the second semester clever white sport frocks were used.

Boys' Glee Club

EARLY rising is the motto of the Boys' Glee Club. Singing is the best way to start a perfect day, its members say, and is also a real incentive to a feeling of warm friendship.

Under the supervision of Miss Florence Best the boys create a wonderful atmosphere for music. The club meets every school day except Friday at 7:40 a. m. The first of the hour's work is devoted to breathing and tuning-up exercises for the bettering of tone quality and for volume. The rest of the hour is spent in practicing songs which are to be used in concerts.

The purpose of the organization is to provide an opportunity for fellows musically inclined to express themselves in ensemble singing.

The group sang at the Ladies' Literary club, the school assemblies, the mid-winter concert, and the spring festival where they received many praises due to the splendid cooperation of the fellows.

The organization is divided into four parts, first tenor, second tenor, baritone, and bass. Some of their favorite songs are "Alma Mater", a college song; "Vive L'Amour", a French college song; "Concordi Laititia", an old Latin hymn; "Holy Mother Sings", arranged by McKinney; "Prayer of Thanksgiving", an old Netherlands hymn; and "Old King Cole", variations from the nursery rhyme by Cecil Forsyth.

The Boys' Glee Club furnished several members of the mixed quartets which were formed to take part in the all-city contest. Jane Jelsma acted as accompanist for the Glee Club.

The Mixed Chorus

THE Mixed Chorus is proving more popular each year. This year the membership of the chorus numbered 70 the first semester, and 90 the second. Since many of these students had formerly been under Miss Best's able direction and training, they produced work of excellent quality. Jane Jelsma, a former accompanist for Miss Coye in her work at Harrison Junior High, acted as pianist for the group.

The January Mid-Winter Festival of Music gave the group an opportunity to display its ability. "Morning" by Speaks, and a negro spiritual "Soon I'm Goin' Home" by Lester were the selections used in this concert. These numbers were repeated in the junior and senior assemblies a few days following.

The chorus was asked to sing at a Sunday evening service at the All Souls Universalist Church. In fulfilling this request, it sang a collection of modern Russian numbers a cappella.

During the second semester the students devoted most of their time to preparing numbers written by some of the modern composers, several of which are Felix Borowski, W. Otto Miessner, and Harvey Gaul. It was the plan of the group to achieve the honor of having one of these men at the spring concert when these numbers were presented.

The Mixed Chorus has been largely composed of seniors this year, but it is hoped that the group of next year will be as promising as it is at present.

Union High Safety Club

THE Union High Safety club was the first of its kind to be organized by any senior high school in Grand Rapids. Membership is granted to all high school students interested in public safety. The purpose of the club is to cooperate with the City Safety Council in reducing the number of accidents. The motto is "Safetyze and Keep Alive".

Practical problems have been undertaken by the members; for example, a set of traffic laws was written for consideration of the City Council, and safety slogans and posters made for school exhibition.

Special social gatherings gave opportunities for outside speakers to emphasize the need of the work. Mr. Ross Farra of the City Safety Council, Miss Marian Lelford of the National Safety Council and Mr. Reuben Smith gave excellent talks on "Safety and Its Problems".

In April the club sponsored an assembly. Mayor John Karel talked on safety and several musical numbers were played by Mr. Orval Carls, banjo instructor at Frederick's Music Shop.

Through the cooperation and enthusiasm of Miss Elizabeth Perrin, the adviser, the club was able to accomplish many projects.

The officers elected for the first semester were: President, Raymond Falicki; vice-president, Edith Roberson; secretary, Mary Catherine Voss; and treasurer, Virginia Wysell. Those elected for the second semester were: President. Ella Wright; vice-president, Nell Everse; secretary, Nancy Wilkins; and treasurer, Marie Wieland.

Audubon Club

THE Audubon Club was organized March 11, 1926. The purpose of this club, which meets every two weeks, is to study birds and nature and also to cultivate friendliness among the girls through social activities.

Miss Elizabeth Crotser acts as adviser of the group. The officers for the first semester were: President, Beatrice Burakowski; vice-president, Bernice Buczynski; secretary, Martha Haraburda; treasurer, Irma Frick; program chairman, Bernice Malinowski. The officers elected in January were: President, Gertrude Leiviska; vice-president, Theodora Gutowski; secretary, Wanda B. Jurewicz; treasurer, Lorraine Baltes; program chairman, Margaret Peot.

The club joined the National Audubon Society of New York, each member receiving a button showing membership in this organization. Each girl also received bird leaflets from the National Audubon Society. Every year the club subscribes to the "Bird Lore" which is placed in the library for the use of the school.

This year the girls earned money which was used to buy milk for children and to pay for their lunches in the lunchroom. At Thanksgiving donations were sent to families in need.

During the year the Auduboners enjoyed wienie roasts, potlucks, a Christmas dinner, a skating party, a bunco party and hikes on which bird studies were made.

Miss Nelle Curtis of the museum addressed the club at a joint meeting of the Fauna Flora Club and the Science Club in February. She used colored slides to illustrate her interesting talk on India.

The Nature Club

THE Nature Club is a combination of two clubs; namely, the Fauna Flora Club, an organization for girls, and the Science Club, an organization of boys. Mr. Clayton Bazuin is adviser for both.

The Fauna Flora Club was organized for the study of animal and plant life. Reports on these subjects given by members at the meetings aid the club in carrying out its purpose.

In February, Miss Nelle Curtis of the Museum, addressed a joint meeting of the Science Club and the Audubon Club. She illustrated her talk on India with colored slides.

In March, through the courtesy of Rason & Dows, Furriers, the members were able to see the workshop of the fur organization. A potluck supper preceded the trip.

The officers elected for the first semester were: President, Ella Wright; vice-president, Margaret Simms; secretary, Alyce Kob; treasurer, Marian Timmers. Those elected for the last semester were: President, Eleanor Lampert; vice-president, Vera Lewis; secretary, Inez Grinnell; treasurer, Marie Honholt.

The Science Club's purpose is to extend the knowledge of its members in natural and physical sciences. Reports on these studies are given at each meeting. Mr. Frank Dumond of the Museum gave an illustrated lecture for the Science and Fauna Flora clubs. His address was on thc giant redwoods of California, the sequoias.

During Christmas vacation the club had a ski-hike and a theater party. A final get-together was held at Lake Michigan.

The officers elected for the year were: President, Herbert Masalkowski; vice-president, Robert Groenleer; secretary, Herman Content; treasurer, Howard Zaremba.

Union High Home Economics Club

"To make a house a home" is the motto of the Union High Home Economics Club organized last fall with Miss Lura Sipe and Miss Elizabeth Dockeray as advisers; Evelyn Bale, president; Ann Gryga, vice-president; Janet Westerweel, secretary; and Mary Henry, treasurer. Other officers were Stephane Apecenka, social service chairman; Mary Wotalewicz, general social chairman; Bernice Miller, publicity chairman; and Pauline Robbins, Home Economics editor for "The Unionite".

Membership qualifications are a "C" average, enrollment in a Home Economics class, payment of dues, and regular attendance at meetings.

The president represented the club at the State Student Home Economics Convention held in Battle Creek last fall. Further activities included visits to the paper mills at Childsdale and the shoe factory at Rockford, and participation in intercity Home Economics entertainments.

The club regularly provided material for "The Unionite" and furnished the library with "The Journal of Home Economics", in one copy of which appeared a resume of the club and its activities.

Betty Nebelius wrote words for a club song and Mary Katz set them to music.

Club members repaired or made about fifty garments for welfare work in the Union High district besides purchasing clothing for a student at Thanksgiving time. A donation was also given to the Red Cross.

The club is a member of the state and national Home Economics organizations.

English Art Club

THE English Art Club was organized to acquaint the younger generation with the past and present artists and their achievements. This work opens the minds of the members and enables them to look at a painting from the artist's point of view. During the year, from October to June, the club studied the modern artists and their paintings, and various collections that were exhibited at the art gallery.

Two meetings a month were held. Once a month the club met at the art gallery, where Mrs. Swarthout talked on the current exhibition. Among these exhibitions were the paintings and sculptures of contemporary Hungarian artists, the work of modern South American artists, and Tibetan banners made by monks of Tibet. The paintings on exhibit by Mr. Homer Gordon Davisson were thoroughly discussed as was the collection of fans loaned by Mrs. Dudley Waters, representing the art of widely separated countries. Meetings at school were held at which Miss Bettes showed and explained slides of the Middle Ages and of the noted cathedrals of France.

The officers for the year were as follows: President, Bernice Malinowski; vice-president, Eleanor Lampert; secretary, Maurine Coffee; treasurer, Bernice Miller.

The outstanding social events of the year were a potluck, two dinners, including a Christmas dinner, and a Sunlite Dance.

In general the purpose of the club as connected with the work in English is to make clearer the many references literature contains to different features of art, to different artists, and to the elements of beauty which are universal in art expression.

Forensics

UNION High School enjoyed an unusually successful year in debating. The school team was composed of John Livingston, Robert Lindberg, and Richard Braun. They reached a height in state debating never before attained by a Union team. The question for debate provided by the State League was "Resolved: That National Chain Grocery Stores operating in the State of Michigan are detrimental to the people of the state."

The trio went through the preliminaries with three unanimous and a two-to-one decision, thereby gaining 15 out of a possible 16 points. This placed Union in the elimination series with 64 other schools in the state. Each one is to receive a bronze wall plaque from the Detroit Free Press in acknowledgement of its achievements.

In the elimination series Union's first victory was over South with a two-to-one decision. The team then travelled to Grandville to win a second victory, this time a unanimous one. Because of the illness of a member of the Grand Rapids Catholic team, they forfeited the debate to Union. At the next debate Union entertained Paw Paw with a result of a unanimous decision in favor of the Unionites. The fifth debate was with Traverse City. Although the contest was close, the Union team won a unanimous victory.

As this article goes to press, the debators are preparing to participate in the state championship debate to be held at Ann Arbor on May 1.

In the declamatory contest Union was represented by Frank Kowrack who placed second in a field of eight contestants.

John Livingston represented Union in the extemporaneous speaking contest held on April 24.

Much of the success of the speech department was directly due to the untiring efforts of Stanley Albers.

Margaret Simms, '32

Junior Hi-Y

THE Junior Hi-Y was organized a year ago for boys in the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades. The club officers are elected each semester by direct vote of all members. Meetings are held every Thursday morning in room 242 at 8:00 A. M. Meetings for which a speaker is engaged are alternated with business meetings. Citizenship and character are the subjects of the talks given, for the Hi-Y purpose is "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." The club's problems are discussed at the business meetings, and new members are initiated. Occasionally the members are invited to a swim at the Y. M. C. A.

When the treasury permits, the club sends delegates to the state and county Older Boys' Conferences. Reports are given by the delegates when they return from the conference.

The club has two advisers: Reuben S. Smith, session room and history teacher, and Bob Augustine, Y. M. C. A. representative.

Camp Fire Girls

THE ideals of Camp Fire are expressed in the Law of the Fire, which is

Seek beauty	Pursue knowledge	Glorify work
Give service	Hold on to health	Be happy

Union has four Camp Fire groups, two of them having been organized this year. The officers of Otyokwa, Miss Helen Ellis's group are Jean Criner, president; Grace Brooks, vice-president; Josephine Samrick, secretary, and Florence Sibilski, treasurer. The officers of Kicitanda, Mrs. Otis Dilley's group are Hermine Lindemulder, president; Janet Westerveldt, secretary, and Frances Hooper, treasurer.

Takima, Mrs. John Anderson's group, has been active for three years. Five of its members attended Camp Keewano-Wohelo last summer. This group won second honors in the city for its Needlework Guild garments. Its officers are Barbara Harrigan, president; Treva Andersen, vice president; Mildred Hansser, treasurer; and Ruby Johnson, secretary.

The oldest group at Union is Cafilawawo organized by Miss Lois Richards, five years ago. For four years Miss Florence Parsell has been guardian of this group. Its officers are Helen Campbell, president; Joyce Wilson, vice-president; Virginia Wisner, secretary; and Marjorie Hills, treasurer. Cafilawawo won first honors in the city for its Needlework Guild garments this year. Mae Randall won a week at Camp Keewano-Wohelo for the best birthday count book in the city. Dorothy Rau won a chest of silver in the national competition in table arrangement.

A. A. Society

ONE of the lively clubs of Union High School is call the Double A Society, A. A. standing for Aid Animals. Election of officers takes place twice a year, so that many of its members may act in executive positions. The meetings are held every two weeks after school. This club is a part of the State Humane Society and its purpose is to encourage kindness to animals and also to help the needy. Its members showed the sincerity of their purpose by sending Christmas dinners to several unfortunate families. During the year the club held several banquets, at which instructive talks were given, a skating party, and two wienie roasts.

In every way this has been a profitable year. The success of this organization was due to the untiring loyalty of its members, officers, and adviser, Miss Elizabeth Perrin. The officers for the second semester were: President, Melba McHoskey; vice-president, Raymond Bush; secretary, Lucille Lindeman; treasurer, Tauno Koski; adviser, Miss Perrin.

Lucille Lindeman, '35

HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT

Eight hundred and four students were enrolled in the department this year. The Foods I and II classes gave teas for mothers and teachers, and for Miss MacRae and Miss Demmon. The Foods II classes prepared and served luncheons to committees of faculty members. The profits of several cake sales went toward the welfare work of the department.

A lighted display case on the third floor regularly exhibits quality work done by the foods and clothing classes at Union.

HEALTH WORK

About 125 students participated in health department work offered by Miss Perrin and Mr. Hornbeck in their physiology and hygiene-sanitation classes this year. In the study of environment students of sanitation visited the Grand Rapids Sewage Reduction Plant, the Grand Rapids Creamery, and the Filtration Plant.

The physiology classes proved by experiment on rats that an excessive amount of candy is a detriment to growth and development. Two pairs of rats were given an equal number of calories, one pair being fed calories of sugar and the other a more balanced diet of milk, whole wheat and flour. At the end of six weeks the rats themselves told the story.

The laboratories are well equipped with incubators, sterilizers, properly heated and ventilated rooms, and laboratory slides.

SIGHT CONSERVATION

Five of the 27 students in the sight conservation department this year will graduate from Union. Eleanore Crandall has the second highest standing in the senior class, and William Favel the sixth. Miss Edith Culver, who came the second semester, is now one of the three instructors of this group.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

Miss Bettes's English V class presented two plays, "Frau Werte of the Ready Tongue," by William Favel, '31, and "William Gibney's Fortune," by Louis Lobensky, '30, before the English division of the Western State Teachers Association.

AVIATION WORK

So many young people in high school have expressed a desire to take up aviation as a vocation after they have finished school that it has been felt that a course dealing with the subject was needed. With this in mind an attempt has been made to give the student a clear picture of the possibilities in the field, not only the present possibilities but the future as well. By painting a picture of aviation as it is and not as modern fiction shows it, the school steers out of aviation those people who are interested only in the romantic side. Those who are actually interested in the highly technical science of flying find the course offered at Union very similar to the ground school course offered by the United States Army. This course gives all of the theory needed for a pilot's license and leaves only the actual flying training to be gotten outside.

Aviation I covers the following subjects: aerodynamics, theory of flight, history of aviation, airplane motors (operation, care, maintenance and construction), types of airplanes.

Aviation II covers airplane materials, airplane rigging, air commerce regulation, navigation, meteorology (a study of weather conditions).

Part of the time is devoted to a discussion of current happenings and new ideas that are being tried out at the present time. The equipment available is limited to some obsolete parts furnished by the Army Air Service.

ART GALLERY AWARD

Through the hearty co-operation of students Union was awarded a picture valued at $150 as result of a contest, sponsored by Homer G. Davisson, whereby the school sending the greatest number of representatives to the art gallery during his exhibition in February would receive a picture worth $100. Of a grand total of 2,322 visitors at the gallery, Union won the contest with 1659 votes, so instead of the promised picture the school was presented with a $150 painting, "Pasturelands." The picture hangs in the school library.

ART CONTEST WINNERS

Two Union students, Peter Daswick and Herbert Masalkoski, and an alumnus, Albert Margelis, won prizes in the national Scholastic contest this year. Peter Daswick submitted an oil painting entitled "Ours," for which he won the first prize of $100 in the pictorial contest. Herbert Masalkoski won third prize in soap sculpture. Albert Margelis did a water-color sketch for which he was given a special award.

ESSAY AND POETRY CONTEST

William Titus, '31, won first place in the essay contest and first, second, and third places in the poetry contest this year. William Favel, '31, placed second in the essay contest; Eleanore Crandall, '31, third; Bernice Karpovich, '31, fourth.

ATHLETICS

Track 1930

TEN letter men responded to Coach Hess' call for regular track practice: Capt. Paul Redman, quarter-mile; Frank Cook and Ed Tuma, weights; John Zakrzewski and Eddie Piechocki, sprints; Ed Rinkevich, hurdles; Raulin Gillette and Louis Lobensky, half-mile; Ed Yerman and Clarence Vroegendewey, high-jump. Scores of others also reported for practice.

In addition to these veterans the following won their major letters: Alex Yurgaitis, hurdles; Bill Druker and Red Polmanteer, mile; Charles Burtt, quarter-mile; Stan Orowski and Clayton Penny, half-mile; Freddie Vanderlinde, broad jump; and Marvin Oldenburg and Harry Koning, weights.

Union had another good team this year with ten veteran lettermen. Those who returned were Oldenburg, Koning, Tuma, Yurgaitis, Vanderlinde, Penney, Burtt, Polmanteer, Zakrzewski, and Piechocki. "Teed" Symko, a letterman in 1928, was back in school and eligible for the meets. Teed is a sprint man and broad jumper. He also throws the weights. Frank Cook, city champion shot-putter, the last two years, was not in school so could not compete for Union this spring.

John Zakrzewski, two year city sprint champion, was elected captain of the 1931 team.

The 1930 track team was the best which ever represented Union High School as shown by the number of school records that it made. John Zakrzewski broke the record for the 220 yard dash and tied the century mark; Frank Cook broke the shot-put record; Rinkevich the high hurdle mark; Polmanteer was supreme in the mile; Gillette burned the cinders in record breaking time in the half-mile; Vroegendewey leaped to far greater heights in the high-jump; the relay team smashed the former record and also the city mark; and Redman established a new mark in the quarter-mile.

The team trimmed Muskegon, Holland, and Tech by decisive scores; placed men in the University of Michigan Indoor and Outdoor Invitational meets; placed well among the leaders in the Western State Teachers' relays; placed second to South by a scant three points in the City Regional Meet, after winning seven first places; placed men in the State Track Meet; and won the Indian relays. In the Muskegon and Holland meets, Union took nearly every first place. Zakrzewski, Yerman, and Rinkevich were high point men. The reserve material took the measure of Tech. Coach Hess kept ten of his best performers out of this meet, because of the Western State Teacher's College Relays the next afternoon. In the Western State Relays, Frank Cook took second in the shot-put; Rinkevich took second in the high hurdles; the two-mile relay team, Lobensky, Orowski, Penny and Gillette took third; and the medley relay team, Yerman, Burt, Zakrzewski, and Polmanteer took second. In the Michigan Indoor Invitational Meet, Polmanteer took first in the mile and in the Outdoor Meet Frank Cook took first in the shot. In the city meet those winning first places were Zakrzewski, 100 and 220 yard dashes; Cook, shot-put; Gillette, half-mile; Polmanteer, mile; Rinkevich, low hurdles; and the half-mile relay team, Yerman, Piechocki, Rinkevich, and Zakrzewski.

In the state meet Frank Cook took second in the shot and the half-mile relay team tied for third and fourth.

The team left behind four trophies, now on display in the trophy case, as a result of its work. Three of these were won by the half-mile relay team and the other one by the two-mile relay team.

Basketball

THE football season finished late this year and the basketball season began early. Coach "Doc" Ellingson faced the difficult problem of rounding a team into shape in one week to meet the well drilled Lowell basketeers. However, the return of four veterans and a generous supply of good new material started Union toward a successful season.

Captain-elect Alex Yurgaitis, Frank Cook, Ed Tuma and Al Batts headed the list of returning lettermen, while among the newcomers were numbered Paul De Praam, Ernie Johnson, Charles Tarbell, and George Bookholder.

The newly named Red Hawks stepped into their first game the under dog but emerged after a hard-fought battle on the big end of the score which was Union, 21; Lowell, 19.

In the next game the Union quintet met with Technical. The boys from Tech gave Union an unlooked-for scare by nearly upsetting the dope. Union came back in the last half to win 13 to 10.

Catholic Central sent its basketball team over the next week-end and returned home defeated by the Union five 12 to 28.

Kalamazoo Central dashed down the next night to hand Union its first defeat of the year in a fast game to the tune of 19 to 13.

Ottawa Hills was the next victim of Union's fast clicking five. The Indians were turned back by a count of 17 to 14.

On December 26 the lads all traveled to Tulip Town to meet the Holland quint on its home floor. In a tight battle, with the lead changing hands with every basket, Union was defeated, the score being Holland 16; Union 15.

Port Huron traveled to Union on January 3 and turned back the Red Hawks 29 to 15.

In a thrilling game, at the South gym, the Trojans sank a field goal with less than thirty seconds to play to give Union its first defeat in the city race. The score was South 11; Union 10.

The fast Gold and White quint was stopped by Union in a fast game 14 to 11. At this point the Union team received a severe setback as one of the numbers was declared a professional and as a result Union was forced to forfeit all its wins. Instead of a standing with four wins and one loss, Union now had no wins and five losses in the city title race.

In the next game, in spite of its setback, Union took Creston into camp by an 18 to 16 score.

With the second semester Union acquired the services of Scoby and Symko who starred in the Ottawa game to win for Union the most exciting and thrilling game the Red and White played all season. The game was almost a duplication of the Ottawa game a year earlier, inasmuch as two overtime periods were required to decide the tussle.

Union next traveled to the Cougar's gym where they handed out a 31 to 13 defeat to Catholic Central. South terminated Union's winning streak by turning the West Siders away in a tight defensive battle by a score of 17 to 12. Central was the next team to line up before the Union quint. The game was dull and slow, ending in Central's favor by a score of 15 to 11. Tech was played on its own floor and was swamped in a lop-sided battle, Union 32; Tech 21. Creston matched its team against the Union cagers only to be turned back by a score of 27 to 20.

The last game of the season proved one of the most surprising. The Union team held the Muskies scoreless the first quarter on the Muskegon floor, held them to a 21 to 2 score at the half, and defeated the Big Reds 34 to 17.

In the Regional tournament held at Burton Junior High School, Union cleared away the smoke to find it had defeated the Muskegon Heights quint in the first round 31 to 11. In the final match Union met the crack Grand Haven five, state champions, and lost 14 to 26.

Varsity Football 1930

UNION High School has enjoyed one of the most successful gridiron seasons since the memorable year of 1925. Similar to the record of that championship team, our goal was crossed only once throughout the entire season. Out of nine games played eight were won and one tied. No setbacks can be counted against this year's eleven.

In spite of the fact that all games had to be forfeited because of the ineligibility of Frank Cook, in actual playing Union can be credited with having rightfully won the victories. This year Union had a balanced team whose victories came through the hard playing of every member of the team. In analyzing this year's team one can truly say that Union was represented by one of the best teams in the state of Michigan. Much credit for this year's success is due to Coach Hess for his untiring attempt to bring to Union a city and state championship. Captain Ted Burgess, all-state guard, also deserves merit for his able leadership of this year's team.

The Hessmen started the season on September 26 with Shelby High School as its opponent and trampled over the inexperienced Shelby team by a 63 to 0 score.

The Trojans from Traverse City were next on the program and were forced to submit to a 20 to 0 defeat.

The Polar Bears offered the west siders plenty of opposition in their annual encounter the following week, but a fighting Union team emerged victorious by a 14 to 0 score.

The Red and White warriors had not forgotten the heart-breaking tie with Tech last year so they vowed not to shave unless they could avenge last year's blot by piling up more than thirty points. That night our boys shaved, for they trampled over Tech by a 34-0 score.

Union met Catholic after a week layoff and, before this engagement was over, piled up a 20 to 0 count.

The Big Reds of Muskegon could not stem the Red and White tide as it swept over the Redmond crew by a 14 to 7 score. This marks the second defeat Muskegon has suffered in the hands of Union in two years, and also the second time that a Muskegon team was defeated on its home field. That defeat was in 1922 and also by Union.

Ottawa Hills tried hard, but our boys, still remembering the stinging tie with the Indians last year, romped over the Palmer eleven by a 12 to 0 score.

Union met its oldest city rival, Central High School, and in semi-darkness defeated the Hilltoppers by a 20 to 0 score.

On Thanksgiving day Union renewed its relationship with South High School but played under such miserable playing conditions that neither team could make any headway, the game ending in a deadlock, thereby putting both teams in a tie for the city title.

Eleven members of this year's co-championship team are graduating while seven will return for service next year. The following men will be lost through graduation: Capt. Burgess, Kawka, Rinkevich, Miller, Druker, Jennings, Piechocki, Batts, Oldenburg, Strockis, and Zakrzewski.

Those returning are Capt. Tuma, Dauksza, Jablonski, McFall, Johnson, Blasen and Symko.

Varsity Club

THIS year's Varsity Club has maintained its purpose of stimulating friendliness among the athletes of the school, and has also established a bond of good friendship with the other varsity clubs in the city. The club is composed of only those having earned a major letter in either football, basketball or track. All other sports are considered minor.

Meetings are held every other week, with Mr. Voss and Coaches Ellingson and Hess acting as advisers. Because of practice work after school these meetings take place in the evening.

The club with the cooperation of Principal Everest and the athletic association arranged for the first homecoming day game in the history of the school on Thanksgiving day when Union played South High School. As this new project proved rather successful, the club hopes to carry the plan out every year. The evening of the game the members sponsored the Turkey Strut, one of the highlights of the school parties.

The Varsity Club won the city basketball championship in a tournament that brought together all of the varsity club teams of the city, and thereby brought the little brown jug to Union this year.

The officers who served the varsity club for a term of one year were as follows: President, Edward Rinkevich; vice president, Alex Yurgaitis; secretary, Raulin Gillette (first semester); Ernest Johnson (second semester); treasurer, Will Druker.

William Druker, '31

Second row: Sidney Hodson, Mr. Clayton Bazuin, coach; Robert Groenleer, manager.

Golf Team

GOLF, one of the most popular minor sports at Union, has brought out representatives who have always been more than ordinarily successful in the local tournament.

During the past three years our golf teams have annexed three city championships, three regional championships and have placed second twice at the state tournament at Ypsilanti.

In 1929 Union had the honor of having the captain of its team, Peter Zegunis, win the individual high school amateur title of the state. During the same year Union placed second in the Western Michigan tournament at Pontaluna Beach, Muskegon.

The golf team of 1930, led by Ben Bartnick, a sophomore, lost only three matches, and these to one school, out of the thirty-two games played. The 1930 veterans who returned were Ben Bartnick, Bill Gernis, Frank Palezewski, Joe Strockis and Sidney Hodson, only one member being lost by graduation. Several new, able, golfers also tried out for the team this year.

Last year, through the courtesy of the Highlands, Cascade, Masonic and Gracewil Clubs, Union's matches were played on these courses.

Present and former stars of Union featured in the City Tournament at Highlands last summer were Pete Zegunis, '29, who lost in the semi-finals and Ben Bartnick, who bowed in defeat to John Berglin, former U. of M. golf team captain, only after a close twenty hole match.

Mr. Clayton Bazuin coaches Union's team.

Robert Groenleer, '32

Tennis Team

TENNIS is one of the minor sports in which Union has always had a team which well represented the school. The prospect for the season looked as promising as in the past with four lettermen returning from last year's team and a number of new fellows out for the squad.

The schedule of city games each year takes place during April and May. A team consists of six players who play according to their ranking. There are also two doubles teams from each school. Union's home courts are at John Ball Park.

Aside from playing the regular city school schedule, the team represented Union in the State Regional Meet from which the winners in both singles and doubles competed in the state meet. This state meet determines the state high school champions in singles and doubles.

The faculty adviser and coach for the season of 1931 was Mr. Jones, who planned extensive training and practice for the team before the season opened.

Scores were not yet determined when "The Aurora" went to press.

The schedule was as follows:

Jack McIntyre, '31

SINGLES		DOUBLES
April 17	Union vs Central	April 15	Union vs Ottawa
April 24	Union vs Ottawa	April 22	Union vs Christian
May 1	Union vs Christian	April 29	Union vs Catholic

June 5 and 6	State Meet	June 5 and 6	State Meet

Second row: Chester Wysocki, William Morris, Tony Kalinowski, Harry Gronko, Capt. Ben Tarry, Wilbur Houser, John Roman, Russel Esveld, George King, Harlan Kimball, Ray Weist.

Reserve Football

THE reserve football squad had a very successful season last fall, and, with its exceptional material, brought to Union a city reserve football championship. Out of nine games played the reserve team won 6, lost 2, and tied 1. One of the high spots of last year's schedule was the victory over the strong Greenville first team by a 6 to 0 score.

Coach Ellingson, like Coach Hess, deserves much credit for his team's success. He too spent much of his time after school in preparing these boys for the first team. Last fall Coach Ellingson had some unusual material to work with, but the majority of these big boys were novices and needed much development and instructions on the game. Such boys as Capt. Tarry, Wysocki, Vanderlinde and Roman should undoubtedly aid the first team backs next fall, while Szczepaniak and King should help boost the linemen's material. Others who rendered their services to the reserve team last fall are Mangus, Ellsworth, and Kelly.

Reserve Basketball

WITH just one member of last season's squad returning, Coach Hess faced quite a difficult problem in building up a reliable second team.

The "seconds" turned out to be a "scrappy" and hard-working bunch and were soon playing some fine basketball. Coach Hess deserves much credit for his work with these "scrubs".

As the purpose of a second team is to build up material for varsity teams in the future, the squad was picked largely of freshmen and sophomores.

Most of the games were played with the following line-up: Patt and McCarthy, forwards; McHoskey, center; Zindel and Wysocki, guards. Al Zegunis and "Russ" Olenyk, forwards; "Les" Nograd and Sterling King, centers; and George Rinkevich, guard, saw quite a bit of service in their respective postions.

With a few more years of competition before them, these boys ought to develop into fine basketball players. Some of them will be advanced to the first squad next year.

The whole squad is returning next year and Coach Hess is looking forward to a good season.

Swimming

BECAUSE of the too large classes of previous years, a new program was devised so that more girls could take swimming at the Y. The year was divided into three parts. The first part was devoted entirely to beginners, the second to intermediates, and the third to the advanced swimmers. Miss Marian Osborne, swimming coach, found some promising material in these large classes.

The fundamentals of swimming were taught to the beginners; good form, speed, and endurance were stressed in the intermediate class; and diving, in the advanced class. This opportunity to learn how to swim and dive according to the best methods is welcomed and appreciated by all the girls interested in swimming.

To bring the year to a successful close, a Splash Party was held on March 20. All girls in the swimming classes were invited. Supper was served in the cafeteria after the sport in the pool. Everyone, regardless of her class during the year, had a good time.

Pearl Wesslund, '31

Soccer

THIS fall soccer was substituted for hockey. The Girls' U Club, with the aid of Miss Margaret Mac Donald, coach of this new sport, planned practice games and contests among the senior high girls.

Sarah Allen was elected manager for the sophomores, Margaret Simms for the juniors, and Pearl Wesslund for the seniors. Veronie Koone captained the seniors, Dena Hoogerhyde the juniors, and Sarah Allen the sophomores.

The teams were very evenly matched, each winning one game and losing one, giving each class 150 points toward the meet.

Pearl Wesslund, '31

The Witches Gambol

THE Witches Gambol has become an annual event at Union. It is an all-girls' party which is sponsored every fall in October by the Girls' "U" Club. The party is usually open to all girls of the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades, but this year the junior high girls were invited. Everyone came in costumes which varied from "tramps" to ballet dancers.

This year's Gambol was given October 22 in the Dillingham Memorial gymnasium. Lillian Richardson was general chairman. Her committee was composed of the following girls: Evelyn Bale, refreshments; Pearl Wesslund, decorations; Bernice Klumpp, games and entertainment; Maryverne Porter, invitations; Barbara Helfenbein, publicity.

Each class put on a stunt. A magnificent painted tin-cup was presented to the class giving the best stunt. This year's cup was won by the seniors. The chairmen for the stunts were Lillian Richardson, seniors; Lena Romani, juniors; Sarah Allen, sophomores.

Margaret Simms, '31

Basketball

BY an 18-8 score over the sophs Friday, March 13, the juniors became basketball champs of the year. The seniors won the second team championship.

The schedule and results for the year were as follows: juniors vs seniors, 15-7; juniors vs. sophs, 18-8; sophs vs. seniors, 9-8.

All teams showed fine playing and good sportsmanship. The junior team did some outstanding team work and deservingly won the championship.

The following persons were members of the victorious squad: Jennie Borkowski, Lena Romani, and Margaret Simms, forwards; Helen Juntenan, and Isabelle Haggerty, side centers; Maryverne Porter, jump center; Dena Hoogerhyde, and Florence Panzer, guards.

Alice Kimball, '32

Second row: Miss Marian Osborne, Gertrude Cunningham, Caroline Palmantier, Jane Davis, Dorothy Danielson, Phyllis Comrie, Frieda Ragir, Dorothea Sutter, Beatrice Zindel, Lorraine Schmidt, Belva Smith.
Third row: Charlotte Kortlander, Verna Johnson, Barbara Harrigan, Betty Nebelius, Donna Baltes, Mary Buck, Nina Mauzy, Florence Zdybel, Albina Maslowski, Cora VanderBos.

T. D. S. Club

THE T. D. S., an athletic club, was organized to help Junior High school girls earn their athletic awards and to create an interest in interclass activities among them.

The name T. D. S. stands for the athletic awards issued each spring; the triangle for the seventh grade; the diamond for the eighth; and the star for the ninth. The T. D. S. aims to develop a spirit of cooperation and good fellowship among the girls and a lasting desire for physical activities of all kinds. The meetings are held the second and fourth Mondays of the month.

Early in the first semester the members met and elected the following officers: President, Dorothy Cutler; vice-president, Norma Bowman; and secretary-treasurer, Marjorie Castor.

The club had a hike to Comstock Park, a roller skating party to Miss Marian Osborne's home, a distance of five miles, a hare and hound chase, a snow-ball fight, an ice-skating carnival, a Sunlight Dance, a hike to Aman Park, target-bowling tournament, Ping-Pong tournament, nature tour, treasure hunt, wienie roast, and a swimming party at Bostwick Lake.

Committee Chairmen were as follows: general chairman, Dorothy La Gran; party chairman, Carmen Mains; and publicity, Barbara Harrigan and Virginia Wood.

Members of the committee were Norma Bowman, Verna Johnson, Phyllis Froling, Gertrude Cunningham, Charlotte Velders, Florence Borek, Marjorie Castor and Kate Drasin.

Second row: Minnie Zindel, Marion Devereaux, Esther Kizlaitis, Maud Stratton, Margaret Simms, Miss Margaret Mac Donald, adviser, Sarah Allen, Catherine Oosting, Mildred Rodgers, Evelyn Bale, Dorothy Gravelyn, Lillian Richardson.
Third row: Edna Ylisela, Helen Juntenen, Helen Leiviska, Dorothy La Gran, Ruth Sevensma, Lucille Verhey, Ann Gryga, Eleanor Lampert, Helen Kaminski, Ruth Rinner.
Fourth row: Jean Liberman, Florence Panzer, Lena Romani, Leona Reynolds, Ruth Rapp, Josephine Poggi, Jennie Borkowski, Viola Anderson, Maryverne Porter.

The Girl's "U" Club

THE Girls' "U" Club is composed of tenth, eleventh and twelfth grade girls interested in the promotion of athletics. This club is under the direction of Miss Margaret MacDonald, physical training instructor.

The following officers were elected for the term: President, Marian Timmers; vice president, Sarah Allen; secretary, Berniece Klumpp; and treasurer, Margaret Simms.

The aims of the club are (1) to create a desire for an interest in those sports and activities, the pursuit of which adds to health and physical efficiency, (2) to promote a spirit of good fellowship among girls at Union, (3) to help each girl work for a numeral, letter, and all-city honor.

The one thousand points which a girl makes to win her numeral is the foundation for the much prized "U" for which two thousand points are required. A girl must have won both her numeral and her "U" before she can win her highest athletic award, the all-city honor. To win this award a girl must have won three thousand points and she must be a senior.

The big social function of the year, the Icicle Slide, was the first all girls' "bid" party ever attempted at Union. For this event the gymnasium was elaborately decorated.

Two joint mixers were given in the girls' gym by the T. D. S. Club and the G. U. C. These proved to be unusually successful.

Let's think of Spring!

Lets think of you!
I will be very much after we leave dear old Union, because you're a friend
worth thinking about. Sure funny
seeing our pictures
in the senior autographs doesn't it? Hope I can look upon your smiling face sometimes after we leave instead
